May 2011

Dear Western States Conference Youth Participant:

By choosing to attend the Youth to Youth International's Western States Regional Conference, you've made a decision to REPRESENT your values and STAND for something. This is your chance to be an ICON. You'll learn leadership skills, meet new and exciting people, and experience inspiration that will be felt long after the four day conference ends! Congratulations on choosing to attend Youth to Youth International's Western States "Iconic." Summer Training Conference 2011!

The conference agenda includes family groups (discussion groups that have made Y2Y Conferences famous!), workshops from professionals and high school peers, youth action groups, an original teambuilding challenge and tons of other activities. You'll hear presentations from some of America's top youth speakers, Shaun Derik, Matt Bellace and Lew Dodley. You'll hang out, swim, wind down, and dance the night away at three special evening events.

The best experience of your summer begins Saturday July 9, 2011 with registration from 11:45 am to 12:45 pm outside "THE HUB" across from the Emmett Student Center at the Claremont-McKenna College in Claremont, California

*Please eat prior to your arrival on campus; there are NO restaurants on campus or within close walking distance.

The cancellation notice must list each canceling participant's name. During this 3-week block of time, cancellations cannot occur, either in part or whole. TRANSPORTATION

Air transportation should occur through Ontario Airport in Ontario, California. Youth to Youth is unable to provide transportation to and from the airport. The following is a list of taxi and shuttle services available to you. Please make arrangements directly through the service.

MEDICAL

A nurse will be made available for routine minor first aid, if needed. Medical care is not available on campus. In the unlikely event of a major emergency, an emergency squad will be contacted and/or the participant will be transported to a nearby hospital. Parents or guardians will be notified immediately in the event of illness or an emergency. Participants are responsible for supplying and taking their own prescriptions or over-the-counter medicines (i.e., aspirin, Tylenol, cold preparations) if needed. No staff member, including the nurse, will dispense or distribute any medications or medical treatments.

At registration, please inform the nurse if you are taking medication or have a medical problem. Routine non-controlled prescriptions for a controlled substance (such as Ritalin for hyperactivity) will be kept locked in the nurses' station and the teen may obtain medicine for self-administration when needed from the nurse. If you have any questions regarding your child's eligibility due to physical limitations or medical problems, please contact us at least 2 weeks prior to your arrival.

RULES (YOUTH ONLY)

Please make sure both participants and parent/guardians review all the conference rules contained in this information packet prior to signing and returning the rules form.

WHAT TO BRING

For your stay at Claremont McKenna College, you will need to know the following about the dorms and what to bring:

Some of the dorms are not air-conditioned, so you may want to bring a fan. You will be using communal bathrooms (as the dorm rooms do not have private bathrooms). Linen provided by the college includes 2 sheets, 1 pillowcase, 2 bath towels, 1 pillow, and 1 blanket. (Youth to Youth charges participants for items not in their rooms at checkout. Participants may pay these charges at checkout or be billed. This also pertains to any other damage costs caused by participants.

Cell phones and other electronic devices are not recommended. They can cause a disturbance and/or distraction to the conference. All use of cell phones which includes texting is prohibited during the conference. Exceptions are in your dorm, before lights out, or at meal times to parents. In case of emergency, participants and staff should be reached through the Youth to Youth office (this number is listed in this packet). All participants and staff should carry these items in a backpack, although we recommend not bringing them at all. (Adults needing to connect to office or family are asked to use their cell phones discretely during meal times or breaks).

You will also want to bring the following: casual and comfortable clothing, camera (optional), pens/pencils, watch, alarm clock, and a key chain. Bring a bathing suit for the pool party! Also, some activities may require physical activity, so bring tennis shoes. Bring some extra money for snacks at the evening events or to purchase promotional items and concessions. Do not bring valuable items! Youth to Youth is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

ADULT FORUM MEETINGS

While Youth to Youth conferences are modeled for having the maximum impact on teens and getting them involved, adults participating in all aspects of the conference also gain valuable insight on how to engage young people. However, the busy conference schedule often allows little time to network with adult peers. That is why Youth to Youth International gives special attention to those adults working with young people on a year-round basis through our summer conference Adult Forum meetings.

During the conference, come and sit down once a day, to relax, share, learn and talk with other adults in the same field. Youth to Youth administrative staff will also present at the Forums to share knowledge with adults and assist in the endeavors of working with and for teens.

EVENING FUN EVENT INFORMATION
